LIVING DISCIPLESHIP PRACTICING OUR FAITH

The Precepts of the Catholic Church

As Catholics, we live our lives in relationships - first, with God, and then, with one another as community of disciples (the Church, giving witness to the world with the intent of making other disciples).

The precepts of the Church spell out for us these relationships in the context of a moral life bound to and nourished by liturgical life. The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by the pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor:

1. You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor. To observe the Sabbath has two-fold effect: using our God-given freedom, we worship God and sanctify the world. Sunday reminds us of our task to recognize the holiness of God and sacred work that God has shared with us. From a relational perspective, we nurture your relationship with Jesus by regularly spending time with him.
2. You shall confess your sins at least once a year. Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we recognize that our relationship with Jesus entails ongoing conversion and forgiveness - as disciples, we seek to become holier. From a relational perspective, we say yes to holiness through ongoing reconciliation.
3. You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season. The Easter season is so important that it requires a minimum encounter with Jesus. His resurrection is a singular event that has brought defeat to sin and death. From a relational perspective, our life revolves around Jesus; we the Body celebrate the important milestones in the life of Jesus our Head.
4. You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church. Our practice of fasting and abstinence shows our mastery over our instincts and desires, our capacity to see and value God the Giver over His gifts. From a relational perspective, we make self-sacrifices for loved ones - we forego some good so that we benefit from more good.
5. You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church. Jesus entrusted us his mission. This is why we exist as his Church: to do his work. From a relational perspective, our love for Jesus leads to love our neighbor.

Eucharistic Revival Pilgrim's Passport Spiritual Exercise 1

1. Identify ways that can help you deepen your love for Jesus in the Eucharist.

Do pray about two or three overarching personal goals for the Eucharistic Revival - How do I want Jesus in the Eucharist to make further difference in my life?

Or, at the end of three years, what would make me consider that I have grown in my love for Jesus in the Eucharist, and in my love for His Church, my fellow disciples? For parents with younger children, consider making goals for your family - focus on ways that you as a family can grow together in your love for Jesus in the Eucharist and devotion to the Sunday Mass. Write your goals down on the first page of your pilgrim's passport. Every now and then, revisit your goals and persevere to accomplish them.

Remember to stamp your passport with the "Jesus Team" stamp. Find the stamp in a wooden box by the Baptismal font. Leave the stamp in the box after use. You need not wait until the following weekend to stamp your passport - know that you may visit Jesus in church during the weekdays. The church is usually open from Monday to Thursday from 7 AM until 4:30 PM, and Friday from 7 AM until Noon.

During the summer, if you may find yourself traveling but still want to remain in the loop about the use of the pilgrim's passport, a page on the parish website will be dedicated for the Eucharistic Revival—Pilgrim's Passport. Visit the page for updates. For easy access, scan the QR code with your smart phone.

Wooden Hosts

If you missed taking one of the wooden hosts, please find them in a basket by the Baptismal font, and do take one.

Keep your wooden host in your pocket every day and let it serve as a reminder of Jesus in the Eucharist. On one side, it has the words, "Let God love you." These words are those of Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity. So, let God love you, first and foremost, through His Son, Jesus in the Eucharist.

Buen camino!

Membership & Parish Life

because Jesus called a community

In the Spirit of Accompaniment

"...in the face of Western society that is losing its passion for life, this act is a powerful invitation to reflect together on the serious and urgent issue of human generativity and the conditions that make it possible; by choosing life, our responsibility for the future of humanity is at stake".

- Pontifical Academy for Life,
Archbishop Paglia

With the Supreme Court's recent overruling of Roe v. Wade and returning the authority to the people and our elected representatives, we find in our hands the wonderful opportunity to do pastoral works of healing and dialogue.

- Identify existing wounds, in need of healing, that are pointed out in abortion debates.

- How can you as an individual, you with your family, and we as a parish promote reasoned dialogue and compassionate accompaniment to families, to men and women, that make it easy for them to choose marriage and life?

Saint Patrick, pray for us!

Promoting Collaboration and Outreach

Last June 15, Marcie Hamilton of the Assisi Ministry, Mary Sabin of the Prayer Shawl Ministry, and Helen Barnes of the Visitation Ministry met and shared how each ministry seeks to serve our parish community. In addition, the meeting sought to find ways on how these ministries can better collaborate and find new ways to reach out to parishioners.

At the meeting, the three ministries were invited to be the ministries in focus for the month of August. So in August, take the time to visit the information table at the Parish Center. As with other ministries, new members are welcome.

Parish Synod Responses

Thank you, Paul Then and Todd Gillenkirch, for providing update about the parish Synod listening sessions and the planned ongoing discussions.

To facilitate ongoing discussions in the parish, we will be using the monthly Coffee Hour as the proper platform. Why do we need ongoing conversation in the parish? Because the listening sessions yielded very low participation (27 out of 5583 or .005%) - we hope that many more will get involved. And because of some misconceptions, both doctrinal and non-doctrinal, that need to be better understood and responded to - to address these effectively, two-way communication has to happen. So, let us be companions on the journey.

2021-22 Capital Projects

This past Spring, we were able to complete the following capital projects:

- Repair on the brick work on the exterior walls and pilasters (southern side) of the church,
- Re-stucco the exterior wall of the eastern side of the church,
- Repointing of the church and parish office chimneys,
- Repair and repainting of the exterior walls and woodwork of the parish office,
- Replacement of the plexi-glass covers of the church stained glass windows,
- Replacement of the church basement windows,
- Resurface the front church steps,
- Maintenance work on the church roof, and
- Repair on the Hogan House roof.

We appreciate your support of the Parish Building Fund. Thank you very much.

Let there be light...

We are Jesus' Witnesses!

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit.

- Luke 10:1

In Luke 9:1-6, Jesus sent the Twelve on mission. Here, He appointed seventy-two others and sent them on a similar mission. Jesus did not wait until the very end of His public ministry, rather while on the way to Jerusalem, He was already sending His disciples ahead of Him so that they may experience first-hand the work of missionary disciples.

Note that Jesus sent His disciples in pairs. Why? For one, that disciples were to give witness to Jesus, the witness of two lends credibility to their message. Also, the very heart of the Gospel message is love. Therefore, how the two disciples conduct themselves in the love of Christ would speak to the crowd more loudly.

*He said to them,
"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few;
so ask the master of the harvest
to send out laborers for his harvest."*

- Luke 10:2

That every person has the evangelical right to hear the Gospel message makes the harvest abundant. On the other hand, those who are willing to labor as missionary disciples are few. To understand and appreciate ourselves as missionary disciples is to acknowledge the positive difference that Jesus has on us, and this must be the very impetus for us to share with others the Good News, that is, Jesus.

*"Go on your way;
behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves.
Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals;
and greet no one along the way.
Into whatever house you enter, first say,
'Peace to this household.'
If a peaceful person lives there,
your peace will rest on him;
but if not, it will return to you.
Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you,
for the laborer deserves his payment.
Do not move about from one house to another.
Whatever town you enter and they welcome you,
eat what is set before you,
cure the sick in it and say to them,
'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'
Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you,
go out into the streets and say,
'The dust of your town that clings to our feet,
even that we shake off against you.'
Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand.
I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town."*

- Luke 10:3-12

The main task of a missionary disciple is simply to tell others about Jesus, who has ushered in the time of the kingdom of God. Through our own witness, every person must come to know Jesus and be given the opportunity to follow Him. Recipients may accept or reject the Gospel message.

*The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said,
"Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name."
Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky.
Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents'
and scorpions
and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you.
Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you,
but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."*

- Luke 10:17-20

There is power in the name of Jesus. In spiritual warfare, good triumphs over evil because God is more powerful than the evil one.

In every person, the spiritual warfare takes place in the heart. And every person must use his/her freedom to choose God or not. That God has already triumphed over evil is already a given. Acknowledging and accepting this reality, we then live it out every day, in every decision that we make.

During the Eucharistic Revival, let us grow in love with Jesus in the Eucharist. He has already triumphed over evil and Jesus wants to share His triumph with you and me. It is my hope that we have experienced His triumph in a very personal way. It is our own personal experience that can really help us put a human face to Gospel as we share Jesus with others.

So, good pilgrimage. Good journey. Buen camino!
